

Clarifying Values and Making Life Changes

Please take as long as you need to read through and carefully consider the important questions that follow. Then complete the written section that follows. (Note: this exercise is from a book on ‘confidence’, but feel free to change the key word. For example, if you are searching for ‘happiness’ or ‘self-esteem’, then substitute the term ‘unlimited happiness’ or ‘unlimited self-esteem’ for ‘unlimited confidence’)

In a world where you had unlimited confidence:

- How would you behave differently?
- How would you walk and talk differently?
- How would you play, work and perform differently?
- How would you treat others differently: your friends, relatives, partner, parents, children and work colleagues?
- How would you treat yourself differently?
- How would you treat your body?
- How would you talk to yourself?
- How would your character change?
- What sort of things would you start doing?
- What would you stop doing?
- What goals would you set and work towards?
- What difference would your new-found confidence make in your closest relationships, and how would you behave differently around those people?
- What difference would your new-found confidence help you to make in the world?

Now please write your answers below, in the spaces provided. And if there’s lots of overlap between your answer – good! That’s to be expected; it points you to core values.

Values are your heart's deepest desires for how you want to behave as a human being. Values are not about what you want to get or achieve; they are about how you want to behave or act on an ongoing basis.

There are literally hundreds of different values, but below you'll find a list of the most common ones. Probably, not all of them will be relevant to you. Keep in mind there are no such things as 'right values' or 'wrong values'. It's a bit like our taste in pizzas. If you prefer ham and pineapple but I prefer salami and olives, that doesn't mean that my taste in pizzas is right and yours is wrong. It just means we have different tastes. And similarly, we may have different values. So read through the list below and write a letter next to each value: V = Very important, Q = Quite important, and N = Not so important; and make sure to score at least ten of them as Very important.

1. Acceptance: to be open to and accepting of myself, others, life etc
2. Adventure: to be adventurous; to actively seek, create, or explore novel or stimulating experiences
3. Assertiveness: to respectfully stand up for my rights and request what I want
